Global Assist Network

. . . meeting the holistic needs of the poor, the broken, the marginalized and the suffering in the United States and throughout the world — transforming individuals, communities and nations.

Accomplishing our mission . . .

Global Assist Network gives individuals, churches, corporations and foundations opportunities to become directly involved in ministering to the holistic needs of the poor, the broken, the marginalized and the suffering in the United States and around the world.

We accomplish this by

- using strategic assessment teams and networking with entities already in place to determine the needs that have to be addressed and met to bring about individual and societal change.
- providing immediate and long-term response for victims of disasters . . . providing hope, relief supplies, and ongoing assistance as needed.
- engaging in humanitarian aid activities by procuring and shipping food, food supplements, medicines, medical equipment, school supplies, and other similar items to assist the needy in nations around the world.
- providing financial help for projects that will help meet assessed transformational needs nationally and internationally . . . networking donors with the missions that match their areas of interest.

- networking skilled leaders and professionals with national and international leaders and business professionals who need assistance and training in legal matters, country infrastructure planning and development, business training — endeavoring to raise the economic, social and spiritual standards for all classes of society.
- networking short-term teams of professionals to help national and international leaders and professionals plan, develop and establish new transformational programs, and assist in enriching and expanding already existing programs in areas of education, medical care, business and other arenas, ultimately providing ways that will meet the ongoing economic, social, physical and spiritual needs of all people.
